

Literary Association

The Literary Society (LitSoc) is an association which is for all those who enjoy literature. The association aims to promote, and to create and maintain a conducive environment for the growth of literary activities at Mount Carmel College.

The LitSoc has organised various competitions at various intra-collegiate/inter-collegiate events. The association also helps organise Apostrophe, the annual Literary Festival by the Department of English, in collaboration with the DebSoc, Photography Association, and Dramatics Association.

Weekly sessions are held every Wednesday where there is active discussion and debate on a topic chosen by the members of the association. Participants are also encouraged to share their original pieces at the sessions. Poetry Slam sessions, in association with Airplane Poetry Movement, is one of the most sought after events organised by the LitSoc.

The association even had a Fantasy Fiction Workshop conducted by the renowned writer, Ms. Deepali Junjappa.

In addition to these activities, last year, the LitSoc, on popular demand, introduced the LitSoc Book Club.
